SingAREN
Singapore
Advanced Research and Education Network

SingAREN is Singapore's national research and education network. SingAREN provides dedicated networks to facilitate R&E activities, including E-learning, video conferences and research data management. Our members consist of Institutions of Higher Learning, Government and industry players.   http://www.singaren.net.sg/

We are recruiting for the following position:

Technical Specialist

Key Responsibilities

- Authorisation and Access Infrastructure set-up and support
- Network engineering and maintenance support
- Server implementation and maintenance
- Database management/securing
- Website administration
- Network Security and Analysis

Requirements

- Degree in Computer Engineering or Science, or a relevant field.
- Polytechnic Diploma holders in Computer Engineering with related skillsets would also be considered.
- Familiar with Linux, with knowledge of container-based systems (e.g Docker)
- Familiar with basic Networking Concepts
- Programming knowledge (network applications e.g. Perl/ Python)
- An excellent team player with effective communication skills
- Pro-active mindset with analytical and problem-solving skills
- Able to work independently in a dynamic work environment

Please submit your resume via email to recruitment@singaren.net.sg indicating: email subject title as: "Technical Specialist (SingAREN)"

Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.